An Hour With Private Practice: Questions and Answers

2015 SCHEDULE AND TOPICS

An Hour With Private Practice: Questions and Answers is a free question and answer session for NASW members which is held every third Wednesday of the month from January through November. The monthly call-in sessions focus on a specific private practice subject. There is no registration and members can join in the discussion, ask questions, and make comments. These sessions provide members with important clinical social work updates impacting the delivery of mental health services.

Sessions are limited to the first 100 callers on the day of the event. An Hour With Private Practice is held every third Wednesday of the month from noon until 1:00 pm EST. No session is held in December.
